Breakfast 7:45 a.m. – Program 8:15 – 9:30 a.m.

Maggiano's Little Italy, 111 W. Grand, Chicago

REIA is proud to present a discussion with prolific real estate operators/investors who are taking advantage of market dynamics and disrupting the real estate game. Please join our experts for this engaging and informative dialogue.

- How Origin Investments disrupted and turned the traditional private equity model on its head with its unique approach to capital raising and investor transparency.
- How and where Speedwagon Properties have successfully taken market dynamics and real estate trends to make significant real estate “bets” which paid off tremendously.
- How Apex National Real Estate plans on entering a competitive market and becoming the largest home flipper in the Midwest within a year!
- How Kettle Space, started by former WeWork executive, Dan Rosenzweig, is disrupting the flexible work/office game by taking restaurants and hospitality spaces and converting them into co-working and event space during downtime.
- Given current market issues and challenges - where and what are the opportunities? Advice to real estate investors both large and small...
