Co-Chairman: E. James Keledjian, Chairman, REIA and Co-Founder, Pathway to Living, LLC
Co-Chairman: Charles Wurtz bach, Chairman, Department of Real Estate, The Real Estate Center at DePaul

Please join our expert panel for an engaging and informative discussion on the current and future state of the Chicago real estate market.

The DePaul Real Estate Center recently released a survey after extensive interviews with real estate professionals entitled "The Chicago Real Estate Market – Midyear 2019". Our panel will examine this Survey and discuss opinions in the report and identify potential problems. These issues include the impact of public policy (property taxes and State income tax potential increases), overbuilding, and state-wide rent controls on the current and future markets.

Panelists:

- James D. Shilling, Michael J. Horne Chair, Real Estate Studies, DePaul University
- Jerry Finis, Co-Founder and CEO, Pathway to Living LLC
- Philip Lukowski, Executive V.P.– Chief Portfolio Manager, Waterton & Associates
- Susan Blumberg, Senior Vice President – Managing Director, Northmarq Capital
- Jerry Lumpkins, Dir Metropolitan Banking & Real Estate Finance, BMO Harris Bank
