

Thirteenth Annual REIA/DePaul Summit

Systematic Changes to the Real Estate Industry

Thursday, September 21, 2017

Breakfast 7:45 a.m. – Program 8:15 – 10:00 a.m.

Maggiano's Little Italy, 111 W. Grand, Chicago

Co-Chairman: E. James Keledjian, Chairman, REIA and Principal, Pathway to Living, LLC
Co-Chairman: Charles Wurtzebach, Chairman, Department of Real Estate, The Real Estate Center at DePaul

How will the systematic changes in the real estate industry affect the economy, your business and your lifestyle? Over the next 5-20 years, changes in real finance, non-bank real estate lending, government policy, employment and consumer preference will forever alter our real estate businesses. Our panel will examine the causes of these changes and the impact on the retail, residential and health sectors.

Systematic Changes to the Real Estate Industry:
James D. Shilling, Michael J. Horne Chair, Real Estate Studies, DePaul University

Panel Discussion:
Co-Moderators: Charles Wurtzebach, Chairman, Dept. of Real Estate, DePaul
E. James Keledjian, Chairman, REIA and Principal, Pathway to Living, LLC
