

Fourteenth Annual REIA/DePaul Summit

State of the Industry

Thursday, September 27, 2018

Breakfast 7:45 a.m. – Program 8:15 – 10:00 a.m.

Maggiano's Little Italy, 111 W. Grand, Chicago

Co-Chairman: E. James Keledjian, Chairman, REIA and Principal, Pathway to Living, LLC

Co-Chairman: Charles Wurtz bach, Chairman, Department of Real Estate, The Real Estate Center at DePaul

The DePaul Real Estate Center recently released a survey of the current state of the Chicago real estate markets - mid-year 2018 and the elements that effect those markets. Our panel will examine those issues and identify potential problems over the next two years for investors and developers. The effects of overbuilding, interest rate increases, inflation and government policy (property taxes, state income taxes and potential rent controls) will be discussed in this presentation.

Panelists:

James D. Shilling, Michael J. Horne Chair, Real Estate Studies, DePaul University

Elizabeth L. Gracie, Member, O'Keefe Lyons & Hynes LLC

David Scherer, Principal and Co-Founder, Origin Investments

Marcus Hamacher, Senior Vice President, Ziegler Capital Investments
